BCCWA Scholarship Foundation Market Days Information

Organization Name: Balcones Country Club Women's Association Scholarship Foundation

Tax Status: 501(c)3 non-profit ID: 80-0439559

Tax Determination Letter available on request

Mission statement:

The purpose of the Balcones Country Club Women's Association Scholarship Foundation is to provide for furthering the education of deserving students in our community by making college and vocational scholarships available to them.

Name of event: 2023 BCCWA Market Days

Date of event: November 3-4, 2023

Event Description:

BCCWA Market Days is the primary annual fundraising event for the BCCWA Scholarship Foundation. The 2-day event includes a Silent Auction, a Raffle, a Pantry/Bake Sale and a market of 30+ vendors. It is held at Balcones Country Club and attracts over 500 total people attending the 2-day event.

Event Revenue Target: $30,000

How funds raised will be used:

All revenue from the Market Days as well as monetary gifts from businesses and individuals go directly to fund educational scholarships for area high school students to help them reach their highest potential in life and contribute to society. The event is planned and hosted by BCCWA volunteers to minimize costs and maximize revenues.

Recognition of Donors:

Businesses and individuals who have donated an item or given a monetary gift will be recognized on a Donors & Supporters Poster displayed throughout the event as well as in the event pamphlet given to all who attend and in eBlasts sent to all our members (if your donation is received before October 10th.) Businesses may also be highlighted in our social media postings. Auction items will be attractively displayed in the Silent Auction area with a color mini-poster of the donor's logo.
